

News from Napili Kai Foundation
June 2011 – August 2011

Scholarship Presentation

On Tuesday, June 7th the Napili Kai Foundation presented 7 scholarships totaling $16,500 in the course of its weekly show at the Napili Kai Beach Resort. All recipients are alumni of the Lahainaluna High School and either graduates of the Napili Kai Foundation or children of employees of the Napili Kai Beach Resort.

- Chelsea Brink, who graduated this year and plans to major in Business Administration at CSU Fullerton, received $2,000 in scholarships - $1,000 from the J.C. Millar Scholarship Fund and $1,000 from the Perna Foundation for Hope;
- Michael-Lloyd Akiona, who will be attending Kapiolani Community College for a second year and wants to become an Emergency Medical Technician, received $1,500 from the Perna Foundation for Hope;
- Caitlin Panis, who will be returning to UH-Maui for a second year to major in Photography, received the $1,000 Dennis Wilkinson Memorial Scholarship. The late Mr. Wilkinson was an architect, his wife Jamie owns a Napili Lani condo;

- Mitchell Ramirez Pascua, who will be entering his Junior year at the University of Oregon and wants to major in Economics and Business, received $2,500 from the J.C. Millar Scholarship Fund;
- Kamalu Kaina, who will be a Senior at Menlo College, planning to major in Mass Media Communications, received $2,500 from the Perna Foundation for Hope;
- Dominique Laborte, who will be a Senior at Linfield College, pursuing a degree in Athletic Training, received $3,500; and
- Brittney Kalilikane, a senior at UH-Hilo majoring in Psychology, received $3,500 from the J.C. Millar Scholarship Fund.

Hula Grill Kā'anapali Donation

Board Members Lou Ross, Barbie Dofa and Jan Studwell along with representatives from Hula Grill receiving donation check from Hula Grill for Napili Kai Foundation $1234.

Hula Grill in Kaanapali recently awarded a donation check to NKF for $1234. The Foundation was the recipient of their "Legacy of Aloha Program" which supports programs that help promote Hawaiian culture. For the month of June a portion of Hula Grill's "Chef's Tasting Menu" was donated to the Foundation.

In addition the Foundation keiki and our musicians were asked to perform for guests at Hula Grill for their official anniversary celebration.

Napili Kai Foundation Graduate
Puali'i Cajudoy

On Tuesday, August 9th, 2011 Puali'i Cajudoy graduated from the Napili Kai Foundation, she had danced with the Foundation for eleven years. Puali'i is seen above dancing a Tahitian solo.

Lou Ross presented Puali'i with a graduation certificate and a beautiful gold Hawaiian pendent. Many of Puali'i's family and friends came to the show, by the end of the evening she had received many lei of aloha from them and her hula sisters and brothers.

